

Robyn Christians

Environmental Assessment Practitioner:

Namibia

Curriculum Vitae

Qualifications

Post-Grad Diploma	Current	Post-graduate Diploma in Business Administration Murdoch University Perth, Australia
BSc	2004	Environmental Restoration Murdoch University Perth, Australia

Employment Record:

July 2012- Present

SLR Namibia (Pty) Ltd - Environmental Consulting

Environmental Assessment practitioner

2009 - 2011

Southern African Institute for Environmental Assessment (SAIEA)

- Familiarisation with the Strategic Environmental Assessment process in Namibia
- Contributions to the Uranium Strategic Environmental Assessment for the Erongo Region
 - Minutes of Stakeholder Meetings
 - Biodiversity baseline studies & impact assessments
 - Review & analysis of Environmental Quality Objectives
- Assisting specialists with impacts assessments, report writing and editing for various projects in Namibia

Junior Environmental Scientist

2009 – 2010

Social Impact Assessment and Policy Analysis Corporation (SIAPAC)

- General secretarial work
- Various ad hoc tasks and work requests

PA to Business Manager

2007 – 2009

AngloGold-Ashanti Australia

- Developing flora and fauna handbooks for field use
- Baseline data entry and manipulation in Excel and GIS mapping software
- Basic organisation & secretarial work

Student Assistant to Environmental Manager

2003

Morila Gold Mine, Mali

- Taking field samples for TSF and groundwater quality control
- Analysing of various samples
- Data entry & validation

Volunteer Lab Assistant

Summary of Experience and Capability

Robyn is an SLR Environmental Assessment Practitioner in Namibia. With SLR she is responsible for assisting with environmental impact assessments, environmental management systems and environmental management plans. She provides project assistance to the Project Manager in Swakopmund, Namibia.