

Werner Petrick
 Environmental Assessment Practitioner:
 Manager Namibia

Curriculum Vitae

Qualifications

B. Eng	1995	Civil
M. Env Mgt	2004	Environmental management

Key Areas of Expertise

Key areas of Werner’s expertise are summarised below.

Environmental Management	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Environmental Coordinator, -Manager and -specialist at various originations focusing on implementation of EIAs, EMP, and EMSs - Coordination and review of EIA teams and EIA work
Environmental Impact Assessments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Conducting various EIAs - Compiling EIA reports & EMPs - Coordinate and review specialist studies - Liaison with project teams and other relevant stakeholders, etc.
Environmental feasibility studies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - High level environmental pre-feasibility and feasibility studies
Environmental management systems	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Development and implementation of environmental management systems
Environmental auditing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Conduct various Environmental related audits and compile audit reports
Environmental Training and capacity building	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Developed and conducted various environmental related training and capacity building programmes

Summary of Experience and Capability

Werner is the SLR Environmental Assessment Practitioner Manager in Namibia. With SLR he is responsible for environmental impact assessments, environmental management systems, mine closure planning, environmental training and auditing.

Before joining SLR, Werner was employed by Langer Heinrich Uranium (Pty) Ltd (LHU) as the Environmental Specialist responsible for the management and implementation of EIAs, development of the mine closure plan, improving the ISO 14001 EMS and various other day-to-day activities (i.e. training, audits, etc.). He joined LHU in 2009.

Before that Werner worked on various large projects and for various companies responsible for numerous environmental management related activities and has over 16 years of relevant experience.

Project Experience

Werner has been involved in the following projects:

Project/Organisation	Date	Werner's role
Various Environmental & Geotechnical Engineering related projects.	From 1996 to 1998	Responsible for various Environmental & Geotechnical Engineering related designs, investigations and report writing.
Various Petrochemical related projects	From 1999 to 2004	Responsible for coordinating various EIAs and implementing the EMPs. Development and improvement of ISO14001 EMS. Various audits, training, capacity building, etc.
Multiple clients/projects	From 2004 to 2009	EIAs, EMPs, audits, training, feasibility studies, etc.
LHU	2009 to 2012	Environmental Specialist
SLR	Current positions	Environmental Assessment Practitioner: Manager Namibia